Fear is that strong feeling that makes us shiver, scream, run, close our eyes, stiffen our muscles and that makes our hair stand on end. All of us have been scared, some time. But our greatest fear is to be afraid of "being afraid". This is why we have fairy tales and mysterious stories.

This is why we can play at scaring others, to experience that feeling with a laugh or using our imagination, to see how brave we can be, to grow up. In these moments, we feel deeply alive and vulnerable at the same time.
